para perder humedad y que se desarrollen los sabores. Es más, notarás cómo su sabor mejora con el paso de los días... La mejor rebanada siempre es la última.

¿Por qué es interesante esta receta?

Enseña cómo preparar un buen centeno: una masa madre con los rios refrescos, una buena hidratación y un horno fuerte. En países de tradición «centenaria» muy arraigada no es raro que se den tres fermentaciones a la masa madre, modificando la duración, la humedad de la masa y la temperatura de cada una de ellas, lo que las levaduras y bacterias lleguen al pan en plena forma, aporten sus maravillosos sabores y que el pan sea glorioso.

Variaciones

Si no encuentras harina blanca, cómprala integral y tamízala con un colador de malla metálica fina. Prueba a incorporar especias o a enriquecerlo con un cuarto del peso total de la harina en semillas; se convertirá en un pan muy nutritivo. Añade también frutas y frutos secos dulces; combinarán muy bien con la acidez de la masa madre y el pan brillará.
